In The Night Seasons

Psalms 16:7 "I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel: my reins also instruct me in the night seasons."

The Psalmist David was a man well acquainted with the seasons of life. David had been through seasons of great triumph as well as seasons of great defeat. It was through these seasons that David leaned upon the Lord! You see, David knew that since the Lord had the power to change natural seasons, He had the power to change his seasons.

In this particular passage of Scripture, David was talking about night seasons. When you look up the Hebrew translation of night in this Scripture, you find that it means: a twist (away of the light), i.e. night; fig. adversity:--([mid-]) night (season) (Strong's).

One of the most chilling experiences one can encounter is that of total darkness. If you've ever been in a place such as a cave or coal mine, or some room where no light could enter in, you found it to be a place of profound darkness-darkness that leaves you totally without direction-darkness that leaves you uncertain of your next step.

Many times, we face what could be termed as night seasons. Times when adversity comes against you and you feel like you're surrounded by total darkness. A time when adversity is so intense that you become uncertain of your next step. A time when you feel directionless.

Well, the good news is, you don't have to be overwhelmed by the night seasons! There is counsel in the night seasons! The Lord is there to give you counsel of deliverance. He will show you the way out! He will shine you a light! Don't get disoriented by the night season, keep your spiritual senses and lean upon the Lord. Darkness has to flee when the Lord comes on the scene!

In closing, when you find yourself going through the night seasons, remember what the Psalmist David did, "I have set the Lord always before me: because He is at my right hand, I shall not be moved." (Psalms 16:8)
