FEBRUARY 2016 / VOL 18 NUMBER 2

"I became convinced more than ever that our approach to serving the Lord is often backwards, and I presented this message to the people. We often wait until we receive healing or protection or the solution to a problem before we praise the Lord. Instead, we need to praise Him first—for the sickness, for the danger, and for the problem—offering a sacrifice of praise in the midst of trials."

Excerpt from Nona Freeman's "Unseen Hands."

You'll never get out of your situation without praise. You'll never be promoted to a leadership position without worship. God won't call you to be a preacher, if you aren't first a praiser. God won't call you to be a witness for Him, if you don't first have a heart of worship. Let's grow deeper in the Lord by praising Him always!

The Slow-Cooker God of a Microwave Generation

Waiting is awful. Absolutely horrible. I don't know of one person who enjoys waiting. I mean, patience is the last thing on our minds. We want everything now, now, NOW! With only one search, we can find any information we want. With one click, we can read about the most interesting Hollywood gossip. Everything is instant nowadays, so why doesn't God fix my problem as soon as I ask? Why doesn't he take me out of this situation? If the world understands my need for things to happen right now, at this moment, why doesn't God? For a God who created the entire universe and the existence of mankind in only six days, He sure is taking a long time to answer my prayers.

We have it all wrong. We need a shift in perspective. You see, everything we do revolves around the concept of time. However, God is timeless. Our Lord is infinite, He has no beginning or end. Time means nothing to Him. Nothing! Since God lives outside of the perimeters of time, Jesus is the same yesterday, today, and forever. (Heb. 13:8) Since Jesus never changes, He will deliver you just like He delivered anyone in the Bible. He will part your Red Sea. He will give you strength to slay the giant in your life. He will deliver you out of this situation. Here's the catch though: it's all in His time. God does whatever He wants, whenever He wants. Jesus knows the perfect time for your deliverance. And, maybe, while you're waiting, you'll gain patience and wisdom. Remember, the biggest blessings and breakthroughs take time.

Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

MINISTRY OF THE MONTH: SUNDAY

SCHOOL

4 Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD: 5 And thou shalt love * the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. 6 And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: 7 And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

(Deut 6:4-7 KJV)

A call of teaching the commandments of the Lord unto our children has always been a priority of the people of God. Sometimes people look at Sunday School as though it is a service of less importance, or for kids and optional for adults.

The greatest teacher is experience, not what our youth hear from us, but what they see us do. Not only is Sunday School a chance for adults to learn more about what pleases Jesus, but a chance to instill the importance of learning of the Lord to the next generation.

Whether you have children or not, your presence in the house of God speaks volumes to the youth that see you.

Let's make 2016 the year we demonstrate how important the Lord is to us so the next generation will experience the faithfulness we remember from saints who have passed on.

Phelps Project 7 Bible Club

"Project 7 has really helped me with my walk with the Lord. At one point, I was in church and not in P7. My faith was weak and I didn't serve God whole-heartedly. I eventually quit church, but I was involved in P7 then. On a Thursday morning we had a P7 meeting and the lesson that Sis Karlie taught really made me think twice about myself. From then on, I decided that I wasn't satisfied where I was with God on a spiritual level. If it wasn't for Project 7, I probably wouldn't be where I am today spiritually. I'm so thankful for P7"

- Jonathan Hamilton

If you go to PHS and you aren't involved in P7, you are seriously missing out. Each Thursday morning at 7:40, we have wisdom-filled lessons that challenge our faith and help us grow. Once a month, we have Club Day meetings in the library with 60 or more people. The Lord moves mightily and we leave that meeting ready to win our school. We also have daily prayer at 7:50 AM in the cafeteria. That is the time we get to be a light to our school and pray for ourselves and each other.

If you're an adult who has the time and you aren't involved in our club day meetings, you're not taking advantage of the opportunity to win lost souls. Our school is one of our biggest mission fields, and we're asking you to help us. The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few (Luk 10:2). Get involved and make an impact on a child's life!
