All You Need Is A Moment

2 Chronicles 20:22 And when they began to sing and to praise, the Lord set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten.

When the children of Ammon , Moab, and mount Seir came against Judah, Judah did what Judah means “praise”. Judah began to sing and praise God at a time when they were being attacked. Look what a powerful thing happened when Judah broke out in song and praise, the New Living translations says it this way, At the very moment they began to sing and give praise, the Lord caused the armies of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir to start fighting among themselves. All Judah needed was a moment of singing and a moment of praise unto the Lord to see their enemies turn from attacking them to attacking each other.

If you feel like you are under attack, all you need is a moment of singing and praise unto God to get out of the danger you are facing. Just a moment of singing, just a moment of praise brings frustration and confusion to your enemy.

Don't let the enemy attack your praise—take a moment and let praise out! Don't let the enemy's attack silence your praise—take a moment and let praise out!

The children of Israel took their moment in the midst of the Red Sea. Hananiah, Mischael, and Azariah took their moment in the fiery furnace. Paul and Silas took their moment in a jail cell. All it takes is a moment of singing and praise to turn your battle into victory!

Why don't you just take a moment right now to confuse your enemy! Why don't you take a moment right now to get the enemy off of your back! Let your enemy be destroyed in your moment of praise. Let your enemy be destroyed in your moment of worship.

All you need is a moment!
