WELCOME TO CAC

Pastor And Sis. McKinney along with the CAC Church Family, would like to thank you for choosing to worship the Lord with us today.

We hope you find your visit informative and inspirational and one that will keep you coming back. We are actively involved in our community and surrounding areas with the goal of reaching the lost, the hurting, and the backslider with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. With the lassitude and inconsistency of our day, CAC wants to challenge you to rise above anonymity. We want to help you grow and understand the realness of serving Jesus. We want to offer you the opportunity to have your life changed forever.

Drop us an email and let us know how you enjoyed your visit.

We hope to see you in future services!

Happy Father's Day

Exodus 20:12 "Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee."

Today is the day that we honor Dads. While almost anyone can father a child, it takes more than biological connections to be a father. We find the supreme example of what a father is found in the Scriptures--God's relationship to His children.

So what does it take to be a dad? It takes love, and lots of it. It takes understanding, and once again lots of it. It takes the willingness to provide, and yes (as your children constantly let you know) lots of it.

Dads are the head of the household and always keep the well being of the family in mind. A good dad will sacrifice things for himself just so his family can have the necessary provisions.

A dad is more than a provider; he must be an instructor and disciplinarian. There are times when a dad will have to correct his children by instruction and sometimes by beltstruction. You see a good dad wants his children to grow up knowing what's right and wrong. A good dad is not afraid to correct his children when they get unruly and out of line. And he does it not for the love of authority, but for the love of his child! A good dad is one who is tough yet gentle, stern yet understanding, and one that is feared and respected yet fun to be around.

So today, if you are still blessed to have your Dad around, tell him you love him, yes, even when he corrects you. Give honor to your Dad today and always, it's not an option, it's a commandment.
