

WELCOME TO CAC

Pastor And Sis. McKinney along with the CAC Church Family, would like to thank you for choosing to worship the Lord with us today.

We hope you find your visit informative and inspirational and one that will keep you coming back. We are actively involved in our community and surrounding areas with the goal of reaching the lost, the hurting, and the backslider with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. With the lassitude and inconsistency of our day, CAC wants to challenge you to rise above anonymity. We want to help you grow and understand the realness of serving Jesus. We want to offer you the opportunity to have your life changed forever.

Drop us an email and let us know how you enjoyed your visit.

We hope to see you in future services!

Looking For Something New

Proverbs 27:20 Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied.

Solomon was the son of David and Bathsheba. Solomon succeeded David to rule

Israel. In 1 Kings 3:5-13 we see the Lord appearing to Solomon and asking him what he would like for the Lord to give him. His answer may be surprising, for he didn't ask to live a long life, to be rich, nor the life of his enemies, but Solomon simply wanted an understanding heart so he could discern between the good and bad among the people. Solomon received his request and the Lord also gave him what he didn't ask for, riches and honor so that there would not be another king like unto him all the days he lived. The Book of Proverbs is attributed to Solomon and is a collection of moral and philosophical sayings presented in a unique expressive form. This Book gives insight to many things each of us encounter in life.

One of wisdoms that we are given insight to is that of what is never full and what is never satisfied. Proverbs 27:20 tells us that "Hell and destruction are never full..." That means that no matter how many people are tripped up, snared, deceived, and destroyed, hell and destruction will continue to receive their next victims. Hell and destruction never refuse, they always welcome. This lets us know that until the Lord comes back for His Church and until the time and reign of satan and his influences cease, hell and destruction will continue on their quest.

Also in Proverbs 27:20, we find something else that is never satisfied, "...the eyes of man..." Man is always looking for something new. Looking for something bigger, greater, better, newer, more satisfying, more gratifying, and the list goes on and on.

Recently I read an article that was talking about a new problem that had popped up in Boone County, WV. The problem was the making of a new synthetic meth using Wasp Spray. There have already been deaths attributed to this reckless behavior and it is a direct result of man never being satisfied. Always looking for something new—this time a new way to get stoned.

It's sad to watch the pursuit of man looking and searching for a new high, new buzz, or a new way to numb their minds from reality. Lives are being destroyed, devastated, and lost.

We have to be careful what we pursue. Our appetites of the flesh can lead us down a destructive path. Our pursuit of something new or different can lead us away from God. Instead of looking for something new, why not look unto Jesus? He satisfies! He restores! He saves! Pursue Jesus and be satisfied!
