True Surround Sound

Psalms 32:7 Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.

One of the most popular catch phrases of the day is "surround sound". You walk into electronic stores and you are bombarded by the sales pitch of obtaining "surround sound" for your media needs. Often it is billed as the technology for the next millennium.

Just what is "surround sound"? Well, to answer in simple terms, it is a set of speakers or sound equipment that gives you the feeling of being there live, completely surrounded by the sound of music or voice.

The Psalmist David knew about true "surround sound"! He termed it as being "...compassed about with songs..." David's songs were not for the purpose of entertainment; His songs were sung as praise for what the Lord was doing for him. The Lord had brought deliverance to David on every side; therefore, David was "surrounded" by songs of deliverance.

The Lord still surrounds His people with songs of deliverance. No matter which way we turn, we find that we experience the true "surround sound" of deliverance. Since the Lord has surrounded us with songs of deliverance, we can face our next battle with the confidence that we are coming out victorious.

If we are already surrounded by songs of deliverance, that must mean that God has given us the deliverance before we ever get to the battle. Think about it, you are living in true "surround sound"!
