One Under God

Matthew 12:25 "And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:"

When the question of whether Jesus was casting out devils by Beelzebub, the prince of devils, Jesus gave them an answer that they couldn't dispute. Jesus let them know that a kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation and a house divided against itself cannot stand. He plainly let them know that if Satan cast out Satan, then he is divided against himself and his kingdom cannot stand. Then Jesus spoke something that was not only for that time period, but also was for the Church. Jesus talked about the unity of believers when He said, "He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad."

On Tuesday Morning, September 11, 2001 Americans found themselves in a war in which they didn't ask. And even though many families were torn apart, many lives torn apart, there was something positive that happened that day, the nation became united.

As you drove from state to state, you could see billboards with the theme of unity and prayer displayed. Signs at businesses displayed the words "Pray For America". What happened on September 11, 2001 brought about something else to America that hasn't been in a long while, unified, national prayer. I can't help but believe that even some of those that helped to pass the "no prayer" agenda, prayed that devastating Tuesday Morning.

Another thing that Tuesday Morning, September 11, 2001 brought was a unity among believers all over this Country. Churches opened doors in the middle of the day. Churches opened doors in the middle of the week. Churches had prayer meetings, special services, and became unified in their prayers and focus. On that terrible day, September 11, 2001, this nation became unashamed of prayer. They became united with prayer.

As we look at the present condition of our country today, we see that the unity of 19 years ago has dwindled. Unfortunately, we see more division than unity. More murmuring and complaining than encouragement and honor. And this is why the Church has to step up and become more focused--more focused on lost souls, and more focused on hurting people.

If we truly mean the words We Shall Never Forget, then we won't forget the unity in prayer and country. A new leader, change in laws, or some other ideological change is not what is going to make a difference in our country. Becoming united in politics or parties isn't the answer either. What will make a lasting difference and is still the answer for this nation is for us to become One Under God.
