THE LOVE FOR GOD AND THE LOVE FOR MAN

Once a lawyer asked Jesus a question concerning what commandment is the greatest. Jesus answered him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. Jesus told him that this is the first and great commandment. And then

Jesus went on to tell him the second great commandment, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

We find from the words of Jesus that on these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. Simply put, we must love the Lord and we must love our fellow man.

Many folks today don't have a problem when it comes to loving the Lord, the problem comes when you ask them to love others. But in all reality, you can't love the Lord if you don't love others. And this also works in the opposite you can't love others if you don't love the Lord.

When Jesus came to man, He brought peace to a divided and backslidden society. He brought peace that surpasses all understanding. Jesus wanted folks to get along and love one another. He spent 3 ½ years of active ministry teaching others how to love Him and how to love others; how to treat Him and how to treat others. And the early church exemplified that teaching in the lives they lived.

We today must not fall short of the teachings of Jesus. I John 4:20-21 says "If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also. The Church has been called out to be different from the world. The Church is to exemplify God's love in our actions and deeds. We are to love one another and we are to get along with one another. Anybody that calls themselves a Christian must show forth that love without favor. If we are ever going to have a positive impact on people's lives, we are going to have to love one another. You can't just pick and choose who you want to love. You can't just love people that come to your local church, you must love folks whether they come to your church or not.

The sad part of our society today is that many church folk can't love one another. Many pastors can't love one another. Many Christians walk right past one another without even speaking. What a disappointment it must be to the Lord to see His children acting this way. If we can't display love, genuine love before this lost and dying world, we will not be able to help others see their need of serving Jesus. In reality, if we can't love one another, we can't serve Jesus.
