Exodus 20:12 "Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee."

PIKEVILLE APOSTOLIC CHURCH Welcome to Pikeville Kentucku

Today is the day that we honor Dads. While almost anyone can father a child, it takes more than biological connections to be a father. We find the supreme example of what a father is found in the Scriptures--God's relationship to His children.

So what does it take to be a dad? It takes love, and lots of it. It takes understanding, and once again lots of it. It takes the willingness to provide, and yes (as your children constantly let you know) lots of it.

Dads are the head of the household and always keeps the well-being of the family in mind. A good dad will sacrifice things for himself just so his family can have the necessary provisions.

A dad is more than a provider, he must be an instructor and disciplinarian. There are times when a dad will have to correct his children by instruction and sometimes by belt-struction. You see a good dad wants his children to grow up knowing what's right and wrong. A good dad is not afraid to correct his children when they get unruly and out of line. And he does it not for the love of authority, but for the love of his child! A good dad is one who is tough yet gentle, stern yet understanding, and one that is feared yet fun to be around.

So today, if you are still blessed to have your Dad around, tell him you love him, yes, even when he corrects you. So give honor to your Dad today and always, it's not an option, it's a commandment.
