Fulfilling The Law Of Christ

Galatians 6:2 says: “Bear ye one another’s burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.”

What a powerful Scripture! This Scripture tells us that bearing one another’s burdens is not a suggestion or an idea, but it’s the law, the law of Christ! The word bear in the Greek means to lift up, take up, or carry. The word burdens in the Greek gives the idea of going down such as under a weight or load. So we see that burdens are not just a challenge, they actually are things that bring you down or push you down or cause you to fold under the load. So to fulfill the law of Christ is to help carry and lift up others who are burdened down. Helping them will encourage and enable them to continue on their journey.

Have you every watched someone as they tried to lift something that was too heavy for them? Perhaps it was in the parking lot of Lowe’s and you watched someone struggle lifting a bucket or box and load it in their truck; question is, “Did you lend a helping hand or just watch them struggle”? Or perhaps you were watching your neighbor try to lift something that you realized, they are struggling with lifting that, did you just watch or did you lend a helping hand?

All of these examples are examples that let us see what Galatians 6:2 is saying to all of us. It may not be a box or bucket or some object that someone is trying to lift and carry, maybe it is a problem, an emotion, hurt, or even the struggle of serving the Lord. Are you going to just watch them struggle or are you going to offer help? Are you going to fail to fulfil the law of Christ and fulfil the law of Christ?

When we are unconcerned, we are not fulfilling the law of Christ. When we are uncaring, we are not fulfilling the law of Christ. When we watch as others struggle under the load of their burden and don’t offer any help or relief, we have failed to do the law of Christ.

We must focus beyond ourselves and reach out to those who are struggling. We must encourage those who are barely hanging on. We must help those who are about to fold under the pressure. We can’t just walk past those in need we must offer some help. Maybe all they need is a shoulder to lean on, an ear to listen, or a comforting word of reassurance that you are praying for them. Let’s fulfill the law of Christ by helping bear the burdens of others.
