Here Am I...Send Someone Else

Isaiah 6:8 (KJV) 8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

Isaiah didn't hesitate to volunteer. He didn't even ask about what he was expected to do. He just replied, "Here am I; send me." True volunteerism doesn't ask about the job and then volunteer, they volunteer first.

Volunteerism is the backbone of many organizations. Some organizations that benefit from volunteerism are, The American Red Cross, Habitat For Humanity, Food Banks, Homeless Shelters, Volunteer Fire Departments, and many others. Communities and Churches benefit from volunteerism. Even the state of Tennessee is known as the volunteer state.

Volunteering can be defined simply as rendering a service without receiving compensation; the act or practice of doing work in community service.

Many churches exist and function entirely because of volunteers. Unless you are a church with a lot of resources or a "mega church", every job, event, and function of the Church is done by volunteers.

Volunteering is work. Nobody shows up to volunteer with the intent, "I am here to volunteer, but I don't want to do anything." You show up to volunteer because you want to work at something to make it successful.

Volunteerism is something we must encourage in our day. Even experts say that volunteering doesn't just help the cause you are volunteering for, it benefits the volunteer!

In an article on indeed.com, by Stacey Buttel and Amber Krosel, they explain 10 benefits of volunteering. They are as follows:

- Provides you with a sense of purpose.
- Provides a sense of community.
- Helps you meet new friends.
- Increases your social skills.
- Improves self-esteem.
- Teaches you valuable skills.
- Provides job prospects.
- Brings fun into your life.
- Can help you be happier.
- Gets you out of your comfort zone.

Be a volunteer! Volunteer in your community. Volunteer at your school. Volunteer at the Church you attend. Don't sit in the shadows of work to be done and say, "Here Am I, send someone else"; When someone asks for volunteers, throw up your hand and reply, "Here Am I, send me!"
